And approximately 4 attendees, including 1 staff and 0 press.

1. Call to Order and Reconvened the Special Meeting from April 16, 2014.

Mayor Nancy Roy Fiorillo called the meeting to order and reconvened the Special Meeting from April 16.

2. Draft Pinehurst Development Ordinance Discussion Chapter 8-9.

Bruce Gould, Senior Planner led a discussion of the changes that are being proposed to the Pinehurst Development Ordinance. Mr. Gould covered additional changes for Council to consider regarding several Special Requirements (SR) to the Tables of Permitted and Special Uses. The group held a discussion further about the regulations of propane tanks, fencing for screening, and the importance of enforcement was also discussed. Bruce Gould agreed to contact local propane companies regarding their regulations for partial burials of tanks and actual size options from the local vendors to make sure any limitations Council determines to set in regards to size and weight follow the accurate depiction of what the local companies provide. Another regulation discussed was to prohibit the vending ice machines in the Village of Pinehurst. Next week Council will continue discussing Chapters 8-9 of the proposed Pinehurst Development Ordinance.

3. Adjournment.

At approximately 6:13 pm Councilmember Campbell moved to recess the Special Meeting until 5:00 pm on April 30th in the Council Conference Room. The motion was seconded by Councilmember Phillips and passed unanimously with a vote of 5-0.

Respectfully Submitted,
Lauren M. Craig
