Program audience	Residents and Visitors to the Village

Need/objective	Describe the situation or environment that created the need for this project/program. The Village of Pinehurst is proud that our historic district is one of two National Historic Landmark Districts in North Carolina and one of only 2,600 in the United States. Each day, we strive to honor our deep-rooted history. Read the National Historic Landmark Nomination here. James Walker Tufts wanted a "first rate" plan for his new resort and contacted a land planning firm in Brookline, Massachusetts headed by Frederick Law Olmsted, designer of Central Park in New York City and the Biltmore Estate in Asheville. In about three weeks' time, the plan for the Village of Pinehurst was formed. Mr. Tufts then hired Donald Ross in 1900 to be responsible for golf course development. In recognition of the 150th birthday of Ross and the 200th of Olmstead, the Village of Pinehurst, will use various public engagement methods and passive displays to tell the story of these two men and their invaluable work and vision that created this charming Village. Telling the story of these two men will help establish the reasoning behind our vision and why we remain dedicated to protecting the vibrant community's rich history. This is especially important to new residents that may not know the historical connection.
Programs Overview	Passive traveling display: Will "travel" around the Village and at community events. Meant to provide education through images, writings and qr codes for more information/videos.  Light pole banners: Will be displayed spring to fall throughout the Village. Two designs (one for each). Durable - Double Sided - Fast Product  VOP TV: Various 3 min video clips featuring subject matter experts. Used on social media/websites, schools, official meetings. Filmed outdoors or in front of historical areas.

Communications Objective(s)/ Audience Actions	Specific, measurable, attainable, realistic and time-bound. What needs to happen or be achieved? Start with an action verb, like increase, reduce, improve, etc., Increase awareness of Ross and Olmstead impact to our community Increase outreach with community partners through collaborative events Increase community engagement through social media platforms, in person events and passive displays
Communications Audiences	Media list, partner agencies (schools, resort, businesses)
Expected Challenges	TIME to follow through with planning and execution Competing with a variety of large celebrations Disinterest from transient community Logistics of time/space—both from other areas and have other significant projects—birthdays are months apart Broad theme—how to tie together yet honor each separately Large number of stakeholders—ensure no one gets left out Fact-checking for clarity History is BORING to some
Talking points	What would appeal to the audience (opportunity, uniqueness, relevance to bigger story, etc.)? 1. Olmstead’s vision for the Village of Pinehurst guides us every day. His development of our charming Village will forever be his legacy in our eyes, and we celebrate his 200th birthday. 2. Olmstead’s design principals will always be reflected in the Village of Pinehurst—and are critical to our historic designation 3. Donald Ross changed the history of golf right here in the Village of Pinehurst.
